

Purpose of Troop 667

To provide an effective program that instills desirable qualities of character, trains young men in the responsibilities of participating citizenship, develops their personal fitness, and results in citizens who:

1. Are physically, mentally, and emotionally fit.
2. Have a high degree of self-reliance as evidenced in such qualities as initiative, courage and resourcefulness.
3. Have personal and stable values firmly based on religious concepts.
4. Have a desire and the skills to help others.
5. Understand the principles of the American social, economic, and governmental systems.
6. Are knowledgeable about and take pride in their American heritage and understand America's role in the world.
7. Have a keen respect for the basic rights of all people.
8. Are prepared to fulfill the varied responsibilities of participating in and giving leadership to American society and in other forums of the world.

The values we strive to instill are based upon those found in the Scout Oath and Law.
